

The alternative western VR mining game “Cave Digger” updates with another free content pack named “The Unearthly Arrival”

Find out what’s new in The Frontier filled with riches, dark humor and mysteries!

Oulu, Finland - Dec 6, 2019 -- The Finnish VR game company MeKiwi releases another free content update to their hit title Cave Digger, bringing a new powerful gadget, eight new relics, ten new quests, and a brand new mystery to solve, among some extra entertainment in the town’s saloon. The update will be available for all current platforms (PC, PSVR, Quest) on Friday the 13th of December.

The gist of the update is revolving around mysterious statues that have popped up somewhere in The Frontier. They seem to contain hints about The old Frontier’s history. The player as the adventurer is set to unravel the secret of the statues. The update brings also a new powerful gadget, called “Magnetogun”, to help the adventurer in their journey into the depths of the mountains, while the upgraded saloon and sheriff house now provide some quality entertainment. The miner can play darts and chill at the main saloon, and see all the loot collected.

The Unearthly Arrival key features

- A new unlockable tool, Magnetogun
- 8 new relics
- Upgraded Saloon and Sheriff now provide entertainment and 10 new quests
- A new mystery and an ending that is simply epic

For the complete update changelog, see this Steam announcement:

<https://steamcommunity.com/games/844380/announcements/detail/3724971346854576236>

About Cave Digger

Cave Digger is a VR mining adventure game, which takes place in the mines of a small town of an alternative western universe full of riches, dark humor and mysteries. Gear up to explore the town and the depths of the mountains. Excavate bedrock with your hard swings, reap the rewards of Mother Earth and trade mined valuables for new gadgets and unveil the multiple mysteries with endings. Supports PSVR, Oculus Rift (S), Oculus Quest, HTC Vive, Valve Index and WMR.

Join Cave Digger Discord Community to share feedback and experiences with other players. “The Saloon” is open 24/7 > discord.gg/cavedigger